

13, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

1, Dec. 1913.

Dear Jacobs,

Just got the Storer medal which is splendid. One of the best pieces of work I have seen; the likeness is so good. The old man must be greatly pleased. I'm trying to get you a copy of the big medal of the Congress, but it is not very easy.

What a time you must be having in Baltimore! It is a splendid gift and will be most helpful, but I do not see how either Thayer or Baker can take

13, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

1, Dec. 1913.

up a whole time professorship.
In any case the plan will not last more than a generation, I am sure! The Universities will not be content with second class men and you are not going to get the very best men as teachers to seclude themselves in this way.- bad for them and bad for the students. Still, an experiment is always worth trying, only I wish it was not at the Hopkins, and, any way, it is a problem for the young men, only I am deuced

13, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

1, Dec. 1913

glad it did not come in my day.

Love to Mrs. Jacobs,

Sincerely yours,

M Osler

We have had a "tearing term" so much to do - so many people. All sort of book-business coming in - a superb 1190 nos of avicinus
a gift from Persin